

Chicago, IL – January, 2008

Prospect City announced it has added ExecuCap into its portfolio of clients. The firm is tasked with numerous support, infrastructure and technology responsibilities for the New York-based executive search firm focused on the private equity sector.

Prospect City is providing a Velvet Search Management Database, research support, accounting support, website, email, marketing and design projects.

“Our specialty is building search firms from scratch and improving the operations of existing firms. This is just another great example of how Prospect City is often top-of-mind for successful executive recruiters as they plan to open their new business” said Robert Stein of Prospect City. “We’ve served as an advisor to the company’s CEO for some time now, and as the company unfolds its banner, we’re glad to be a central part of their success.”

Prospect City completed the build within 30 days and continues to serve as an advisor to this firm specializing in Private Equity search.

Prospect City is an infrastructure services provider to executive recruiting firms and corporate recruiting functions within large organizations. The company provides technology (database, VoIP phone systems, IM, websites and email) along with research, administration and accounting services to executive search firms.
