

Chicago, IL – April, 2008

Prospect City announced it has added NKB Partners into its portfolio of clients. The firm is tasked with numerous support, infrastructure and technology responsibilities for the Florida-based executive search and research firm.

Prospect City is providing communications services including a VoIP phone system, email, website hosting and a Velvet database. In addition, Prospect City is also partnering to provide clients with high-level search leverage through the work of NKB.

“We’ve had a history working with NKB’s owner over the past few years and their high-quality search support work matches the expectations of senior level executive recruiters and their clients.” said Prospect City’s President, Robert Stein. “NKB serves in an important leverage role while continuing to lead searches for mid-market companies and national not-for-profits, where they have an outstanding track record.

Prospect City is an infrastructure services provider to executive recruiting firms and corporate recruiting functions within large organizations. The company provides technology (database, VoIP phone systems, IM, websites and email) along with research, administration and accounting services to executive search firms.
